

Beenham Parish Council owns the recreation land known as The Rec which is situated in the middle of the village and runs alongside The Green.

The Parish Council is the legal owner of the Victory Hall, including the land on which the hall stands, which it holds in trust for the Victory Hall charity. The Parish Council has no beneficial interest in either the land or the building.